 www.csk.lv	IMS Manual
	IMS-M.6_2	IMS Policy
		Effective date: 28.12.2016

“CSK Steel” LTD Integrated Quality, Environment and OHS Management system – IMS - (hereinafter) Policy is focused on production of high quality steel constructions, as well as on decreasing of adverse environmental and employees occupational hazards impact resulting from production, and approaching efficient use of resources in production processes.

The basic principles of “CSK Steel” LTD IMS Policy is to ensure framework to company for fulfilling regulatory laws, regulations and other related to company activities requirements. This setup provides our customers with top quality production and prevents company from disadvantaged interaction with environment and affecting adversely employee’s occupational health safety.

“CSK Steel” LTD Top Management ensures for continues IMS improvement and development of company.

That means that we:

- Ensures for continues fulfilling of Environment and Occupational safety requirements and make sure for continues improvement of company in this context;
- Use worldwide tested and approved technologies and environmentally friendly materials, cause we constantly following to the industry trends;
- Oversee for appropriate consumption of naturel resource and constantly reduce environmental emission and the wastes crated in production processes;
- Undertake to ensure the continuous improvement of the labor environment to our employee’s;
- Constantly maintaining and improving our staff professional qualification level, relevant to production processes, Occupational safety and labor culture, based on the regular trainings, as well as engaging and developing staff on all company levels;
- When selecting suppliers and cooperation partners we considering their ability to meet the Quality, Environmental and occupational safety requirements set and maintained in our IMS, policy;
- Ensure for continues raising of production processes and product quality criteria;
- Monitoring the level of our customer’s satisfaction and jointly discovering solutions for continues raising of satisfaction level, thus promoting our, and our customer economic and business growth;
- Precisely evaluating any of existing business activities and potential impact on the environment and employees, thus avoiding the hazard situations or potentially accidents affecting environment and employees.

In order to ensure continuous development of the company and improvements of IMS, we set the objectives and program for their achievement on an annual basis.

Company Management has promotes the IMS Policy as the priority and undertake full responsibility for constant production of highest quality products, concerning for safe labor

 www.csk.lv	IMS Manual
	IMS-M.6_2	IMS Policy
		Effective date: 28.12.2016

environment, environment and will preclude adverse interactions of existing processes under control of company interaction with environment, society, customers and any other partners.

The company staff as well as our cooperation partners understands the IMS policy and it is continuously explained to them.